

GIBERTO ARRIVABENE WITH HIS WIFE, BIANCA

Arrivabene started making glass when he realized that he could no longer find the elegant sets traditionally used by the Italian aristocracy—he is from one of Venice's oldest families, and his wife's maiden name was HRH Princess Bianca di Savoia Aosta. His platinum-rimmed tumblers and wine decanter (bottom left, $70–$690) can be personalized with a family crest or monogram.
